Registrar's Office Issues Students' Instructions For Spring Registration

Registration for classes for the 1958-59 session begins immediately after the Easter vacation. The Registrar's Office has issued certain instructions for students to follow in registering.

Before his conference period, every student will receive instructions from his adviser about the time and place of his conference to arrange his class schedule for 1958-59.

Every sophomore and junior in Curricula Y, II, III, VII, VIII who has selected his major field and has notified his curriculum chairman, will report to the appropriate department head for his conference.

Every sophomore and junior in the above curricula who has not yet notified the curriculum chairman in his choice of major will report first to his curriculum chairman, then proceed to the department head of his major field for his conference.

Every sophomore and junior in Curricula I, IV, V, VI, IX, X, XI, XII, and B will report to his adviser for a conference.

Every freshman will report to his adviser first.

It is important that these instructions be followed and that every student call at the Registrar's Office on or soon after March 21 for other registration instructions and class schedule.

Assembly Program Features Organist

Next Wednesday's assembly will feature Mr. Emmett Tidmarsh, an organist from Union College in Schenectady, New York.

Mr. Tidmarsh played here on Madison campus just a few years ago and his program consisted of a chosen variety of numbers.

The Diapson club which is composed of those students who take private instruction in organ or have studied organ one semester, is sponsoring this program. This club is devoted to the study and appreciation of organ music and students in this organization are encouraged to participate in the various student recitals in addition to sponsoring the appearance of musical artists here on campus.

This assembly has been scheduled for you, the student body, and the Diapson club hopes to have your full support.

Honor Society Holds Tapping Ceremony

During the assembly on March 17, Kappa Delta Pi, Madison's National Honor Society in Education, held its semi-annual tapping for new members.

Membership to this organization is open to all juniors and seniors that meet the requirements of having scholarship grades above the upper quartile of the college, a certain number of semester hours in education, desirable personal habits, and leadership attributes.

To encourage high professional, intellectual, and personal standards and to recognize outstanding contributions to education is the purpose of this society.

Receiving a letter of invitation with the colors of Kappa Delta Pi and a purple carnation were:

Betty Berezoski Miller, Mary Jo Altizer, Carol Bowers, Nancy Cloud,

Nominating Committee's Announcement Reveals The Minor Election Candidates

Minor elections are an important part in the organization of the student body of Madison College. To have an effective student government, the leaders must be chosen with constructive discrimination. Consider your vote not only your privilege of choice, but also as your pledge supporting the principle upon which our student government is based.

Voting will take place in the dormitories and houses Tuesday between 1:30 and 5:00 p.m. The results of the elections will be announced Tuesday evening at 9:00 p.m.

Barbara Cooley, candidate for vice-president of S.G.A. from Warwick, is majoring in physical education and psychology. She has served as Sophomore Class representative to SGA, Freshman class Sergeant-at-Arms, President of the State Council of the Virginia United Christian Youth Movement, Sigma Sigma Sigma social sorority, a member of Westminster Fellowship, representative to Honor Council during summer sessions and a member of Sigma Phi Lambda.

Betty Hundley, Richmond, candidate for the vice-presidency, is a Home Economics major. She has been active as a member of the Standards committee, Student Council, Honor Council, Glee Club, Sigma Phi Lambda, and Alpha Sigma Alpha social sorority.

Winnie Lee Brown, from Herndon, is candidate for secretary of SGA. Winnie is enrolled in Curriculum XI. Her activities include SGA representative, FBIA, Sigma Phi Lambda, Recreation Council, Secretary of the Westminster Fellowship of the Synod of Virginia, and Alpha Sigma Tau social sorority.

Harriett Ann Duff, candidate for SGA secretary, claims Ruckersville as her home town. A member of Curriculum V, she is majoring in Business Education. She has served as a member of YWCA and officer of Sigma Sigma Sigma social sorority.

Louise Brooking, candidate for SGA treasurer, hails from Orange. She is a mathematics major. She has held the office of treasurer in both Kappa Delta Pi and Sigma Phi Lambda. Her other activities include Math club, YWCA, Baptist Student Union, Junior Marshall, and Pi Kappa Sigma social sorority.

Dottie Ray Dawson To Reign As Queen Of May Day Festivities

"I couldn't believe it! I really couldn't! I looked at Sam and she looked so cute, I just had to hug her!"

These were the exclamations of Dottie Ray Dawson when asked how she felt when Sara Welch, president of the Athletic Association, tapped her with a green carnation, signifying that she was to reign as the Queen of Madison's 1958 May Day.

Also happily surprised was Anne Cox when Martha Talman, vice-president of the Athletic Association, tapped her as Maid of Honor. "I feel deeply honored," was Anne's comment.

The daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. Ray Dawson of Richmond, Dottie Ray possesses all the attributes of a queen. Graceful, poised, vivacious, and pretty with her long blonde hair and blue eyes, she is a credit to Madison College.

Enrolled in Curriculum VIII with majors in biology and psychology, our queen has been active in many extra-curricular activities. In past years she has been on the business staff of the Schoolma'am and has been a member of the Fact Finders Committee, Curie Science Club, Mathematics Club, Porpoise Club, Bluestone Cotillion Club, and Pi Kappa Sigma social sorority.

This year Dottie is secretary of Bluestone Cotillion Club, vice-president of Porpoise Club, and a member of the Social Committee.

In contrast to our fair queen is our brown-eyed brunet Maid of Honor, Anne Cox. Anne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cox of Norfolk, and a business education major.

Since coming to Madison, our Maid of Honor has actively participated in various student organizations. In the past, she has been a member of German Club, YWCA, and Social Committee. Treasurer of Alpha Sigma Tau social sorority this year, Anne is also the senior class editor of the Schoolma'am.

Serving the Queen as Maids and adding more beauty and grace to the May Day Festivities will be the following girls:

Betsy Auten, Kay Ballagh, Annie Laurie Daniel, Mary Ellen Garber, Shirley Grimes, Carrie Lou Jeter, Frankie Landis, Grace Manley, Carroll Sue Sink, Sally Smith, Ellen Turpin, and Clara Wilson.

Court attendants are: Connie Faulder, Mitzie Harper, Annie Jagiello, Kitty Kelly, Ella Sue Kiracofe, Loretta Lovitt, Hope McAlphin, Beverly Pearce, Elaine Phelas, Alice Pomeroy, Pat Schultz, and Shirley Stewart.

Also Sally Byrd Carleton, Ellen Southall, Joyce Casteen, Pat Compton, Caroline Evans, Avis Autry, Pat Bosserman, Nancy Brown, Doris Talbert, Lillie Mae Waldron, and Margie Yarger.

Stratford Players Present Spring Play

Are women really such weak, helpless creatures? Not Abby and Martha Brewster, those lovable old ladies in "Arsenic and Old Lace," Stratford's spring play which will be presented in Wilson auditorium on Friday, March 28, and Saturday, March 29, at 8 o'clock.

This is one of the fastest and craziest comedies of the American stage. It is Joseph Kesselring's farce of wholesale manslaughter and merriment and is being directed by Dr. Mary E. Latimer and Wayne Garber.

The play centers around two old ladies who committed twelve murders and their cellar isn't half full yet. It's easy when you know how—one gallon of elderberry wine, a little arsenic, a little strychnine, and just a pinch of cyanide—it really packs a wallop! This is the recipe for this comedy which includes the following characters: Abby Brewster — Pat Lumpkin; Martha Brewster — Judy Murphy; Mortimer Brewster — Ken Holtzman; the Rev. Dr. Harper — Gene Pfoutz; Teddy Brewster — Ed die Broyles; Jonathan Brewster — George Teed; Elaine Harper — Alene Cross; Mr. Gibbs — Henry Pittsenbarger; Mr. Witherspoon — Richard Fogle; Dr. Einstein — Al Strickler; Officer Brophy — Lee Tomlinson; Officer Klein — Annie Laurie Daniel; Officer O'Hara — Joe Purdham; Lt. Rooney — Bert Elfrink. Stage manager is Ann Carol Younkins and Elaine Phelas is in charge of sets and props.

Mildewing Methods

Two years ago the Recreation Council and Student Government Association considered having four automatic washing machines installed on campus so everyone might have access to them.

This was passed and since then many girls have washed their dainty blouses and heavy laundry in them with the added convenience of drying them, too.

Since many of us put our clothes in to wash and don't return to pick them up for several hours we understand why someone removes our wash and replaces it with theirs, and we don't mind. It is when a student removes your wash that is still wet from a dryer and puts her own in on your money that you do mind.

Our campus is known for its working honor system, but does this sound as if it is working? A student involved in this sort of action is violating the Honor Code for stealing. Yes, stealing! She is drying her clothes on time bought by another student who has not relinquished the dryer.

This is not only an Honor Code offense but one for friendly relations among students. How would you like to find your clothes in a wet heap on top of the dryer with "going home time" only a few minutes away? What a good way to have mildewed clothes by the time you arrive home!

Think not only of other students and staying within the Honor Code, but put yourself in the other person's shoes and I'm sure you'll stop to think before you remove the clothes. Wait a few minutes and I'm certain another dryer will be available.

Think For Yourself

In American society today it is difficult for a person to remain an individual. The pressure of the mass is over-powering the will of free expression in thought and personality.

There is a tendency for students to conform rather than risk the penalty of being an individual. No force — administrative or that of friends — should be strong enough to keep a person from self-expression and motivation.

An individual is not necessarily a non-conformist. You can be an individual and still abide by regulations necessary for human existence and social well-being.

Many colleges hinder a student's self-expression by teaching him what to think. If students were taught how to think through a problem or situation, they would be able to express their way of thinking — be more capable of arriving at decisions.

Stop! Take an inventory of yourself and be sure that you are striving to learn how to think, not merely what to think.

Audre Gide stated it this way, "Be faithful to that which exists nowhere but in yourself and thus make yourself indispensable."

New Club In Education Field

With the initial steps in the formation of the student Virginia Education Association on Madison's campus comes improvement. Without its presence many students in the secondary education curriculum have been left out of many valuable, enriching, and helpful experiences gained through the programs provided by A.C.E., Frances Sale, Mercury, Porpoise, Future Business Leaders of America, and others.

When this new organization is formed it will not replace the various clubs but will be a supplement, planned to help future teachers. Membership in the V.E.A. will enable the students to receive literature which will keep them up to date on education in Virginia.

Through the state convention Madison delegates will share, exchange, and gain new ideas in the education field from the other colleges in our state who are affiliated with this organization. They will, in turn, pass their learning on to members of the Madison chapter.

Thank you members of the administration, faculty, and students who are contributing many hours in the formation of a V.E.A. chapter on our campus.

Frances Crockett To Present Recital, Dick Barnes Assistant

Practicing for her organ recital to be presented Sunday afternoon is Frances Crockett, a senior music major.

Frances Crockett, organist, assisted by Richard Barnes, tenor, will present a music recital Sunday, March 23, at 3 p.m., in Wilson Auditorium.

Choosing a varied program, Miss Crockett will play the following selections: "Prelude and Fugue in A Major" by Bach; "Allegro con Spirito from Third Sonata" by Borowski; "Harmonies du Soir (Sounds of Nightfall)" by Kang-Elert; "Fantaisie in A" by Franck; "The Minster Bells" by Wheldon; "In the Morning from Peer Gynt Suite" by Grieg; and "Toccata from Fifth Symphony Op. 42, No. 5," by Widor.

Richard Barnes, accompanied by Miss Nancy Wood, will sing the following selections: "Ruhe Susslich-chen" by Brahms; "Rothe Abend Walker Zichn" by Brahms; "Unforseen" by Cynie Scott; and "Eye-bright" by Norman Dello Jois.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Crockett of Roanoke, Frances is an organ major in Curriculum XII, and is a student of Mr. George Raymond Hicks. During her years here at Madison, she has been very active in student activities. This year Frances is President of Diapason Club, Secretary of the Y-Cabinet, a member of the Glee Club, Sigma Phi Lambda, and Sigma Sigma Sigma social sorority.

A sophomore music major enrolled in Curriculum VI, Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper E. Barnes of Portsmouth. Since coming to Madison, he has been very active in such activities as the Madrigals, Orchestra, and Stratford Players.

Mainly Men

by Larry Bohnert

The nomination slate for Y.M.C.A. officers, released last Monday, listed the nomination for President as Sonny Spinks; Vice-President, Gene Pfoutz; Secretary, Al Strickler; Treasurer, Sam Outen; and Chaplain, Richard Fogle. On Wednesday night this slate of officers was accepted unanimously.

John Buchanan, Al Strickler, Arturo Bassols, Sam Outen, and Charles Rodeffer are the five "goats" pledging Sigma Delta Rho. Most of the "goats" said that wearing their clothes backwards and having cigarettes available for old members wasn't anything compared to the informal initiation given to them last Monday.

The attendance at regular meetings of the mens' Student Government Organization is required of all men students. If you have a job or some other conflicting reason for missing these meetings, you should see Dean Tolbert to be excused.

Later!

Hey There!

by Connie Lou

How about this weather? You never know whether it'll be sunny or snowy. Oh well, variety is the spice of life and we should be living a rather spicy one, huh?

The German-Cotillion Dance weekend was pretty lively. By the Monday morning looks, everyone had a good time and hated to see it end.

Best wishes are extended to all the minor candidates: Have a happy race, and pass the finish line first.

Don't forget to pay your registration fees between March 26 and April 16, according to the time set for your class. This is very important since you must have the receipt for class registration.

Congratulations are in order for Judy Shreckhise who was elected president of the Virginia Home Economics Association this past weekend. Orchids to you, Judy.

Here's a cute one—She's lovely, she's engaged, she uses ponds—she can't afford a bath tub.

I'll close on that one. After one more time the new editor will be holding the reins.

Bye!

Today's Prayer

Our Father, we come to Thee in faith knowing that Thou will hear and answer our prayer. We ask Thy guidance in our every act, we ask Thy forgiveness for our many shortcomings. Help us, O Lord, to turn to Thee in our need. May we learn how to pray and may we learn to listen to Thee. Help us ever to strive for right and for Thy will to be done.

Amen.

College Modern Dance Club Presents Concert Of Artistic Interpretations

Friday and Saturday nights, March 21 and 22, characters of literature and music will come alive on the stage in Wilson Hall, as Orchesis, the college modern dance club, presents its annual concert at eight o'clock on the previously mentioned evenings.

Under the general theme, "Opus '58," the members of Orchesis and Understudies have brought together their interpretations of various selections of prose, poetry and folk songs. The program for the evening has been divided into three parts: "For the Poet and Philosopher," "For the Ecclesiastical," and "For Everyone." Dances to be presented include: "Archy and Mehitabel," "Three Faces of Eve," "Shepherds in Search," "Cindy," "Shenandoah," and the final number, "Main Street, U. S. A."

The concert is under the direction of Miss Monica Gutchow, Orchesis adviser, and is almost entirely student-produced and choreographed. The behind-the-scenes work has been done by members of the two dance groups with the aid of many volunteers. These include Miss Burau and the Dancing in "Three Faces of Eve" are Kitty Conlogne, Ann Shotwell, and Delores Swecker.

Madrigals, Miss Walker and several art students, and the Dance Production Class. Ellen Ashton, with the aid of Kay Merrell and Sue Crichard are in charge of the lighting. The costumes are being assembled by Marie Foster and the Dance Production class. Di Boelt will act as Stage Manager with Miss Walker and art students making the props. Marie Foster will be in charge of make-up, Sara Jane Shearer will be the sound director and Barbara Cooley will be in charge of the programs and publicity.

Those participating in the program are: Reisa Frank, Lois Koontz, Ann Shotwell, Delores Hickman, Kitty Whitten, Dick Barnes, Jean Dyer, Carole Jean Hicks, Nancy Hooper, Carole Dunaway and Pat South.

Also Connie Carr, Pamela Cahill, Mary Ann Budz, Jeanne Foxworth, Nancy Moore, Marty Godey, Nancy Wehrheim and Miss Gutchow.

These members of Orchesis and Understudies worked very hard putting their spring recital together and from all reports the program is coming along very smoothly. Here's wishing them a successful recital!

Did you hear that the May Day script is being revised? Yes, rumor has it that this year the queen will make her entrance on a sleigh and unless the snow stops before long this may have to be done.

Speaking of the May queen, congratulations to Dottie Ray, Anne and the rest of the May Court.

Congratulations are also in order for the Orchesis Club and their sponsor, Miss Gutchow on the fine rating they received at Women's College in Greensboro last week-end. Speaking again of the Orchesis Club, this is a reminder to all students to attend the spring recital which is being held both tonight and tomorrow night. The girls have put a great deal of time on this production and according to all reports, their efforts will be rewarded by an excellent final performance.

Because of the unseasonable weather, the spring intramural sports will not begin until March 24. There is still some indecision about the meeting time for those events being offered, so there will be more concerning that later.

In addition, Lacrosse will begin Tuesday, March 25, at 4:30 p.m. and in case of rain the class will meet indoors.

Both the first and second fencing teams lost their contests with William and Mary last Friday. The first team lost 7-2 and the second team lost 5-4.

Try-outs for the extramural tennis team are just around the corner, so all you enthusiasts better brush up on your techniques.

The Mercury Club is planning a week-end at Riverwood, March 29. Hope everyone has a good time and remember girls it is too cold for swimming!

"Til then—see you at the Orchesis Show.

Fraternity Chapter For Music Students

A chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota, the oldest international music professional fraternity for women, will be established during the 1958-59 session at Madison College. Only music majors and minors will be asked to become members.

This is presently the largest fraternity of this type with chapters in 109 colleges and universities. Membership extends beyond college into seventy-six alumnae chapters.

Sigma Alpha Iota attempts to form chapters of music students and musicians who shall, by their influence and interest uphold the highest ideals of a musical education.

It also strives to raise standards of productive musical work among the women students and to give inspiration and material aid to its members.

Members should further the development of music in America and promote a stronger band of musical interest and understanding between foreign countries and the United States.

Intramural Program Offers Fun For All

The Intramural Sports Program is meant for you! This program was organized just for you — Madison students — Why not take advantage of it? It is principally for those who enjoy clean sports and would like to develop their ability and knowledge.

It's not too late, so come on out and join the fun. March 24, through April 25, softball, archery, golf, and tennis will be offered to all those interested.

Also beginning March 25, lacrosse will be taught to all those interested. It will be organized as an interest group based on enough participation. Miss O'Neill will coach the teams and if enough progress is made they may get to go to the tournament. This will be a great chance for everyone to learn a new sport so come on out and support it!
